Meeting Agenda

Monday, March 1, 2021, 11:00am-12:00pm ET

1. Welcome Remarks, 5 min
2. Breakout Room Introductions, 5 min – We will start with small breakout groups with the aim of creating and building this imaging community. Use this opportunity to greet some new people in or say hello to a familiar face. Consider sharing the following about yourselves:
  - Name, title/field, location, institution
  - How comfortable or familiar are you with imaging standards?
  - What is the best thing that you have eaten in the past week?
3. Presentation by Scott Geffert, 30 min — This presentation will focus on ISO standards and practical considerations for conservation documentation practices.

Scott Geffert is the General Manager of Metropolitan Museum of Art's Imaging department. The Imaging department staff creates collection photography, publication photography and also supports conservation departments offering pre and post-conservation photography, 3D imaging, color management, multiband imaging and the development and implementation of ISO imaging standards. His interests and involvement in imaging have evolved over the years from consulting cultural heritage institutions around the world to taking an active role in helping steer the imaging industry via advocacy of international standards and involvement in the IS&T, ISO and CIE organizations. These efforts have directly influenced improvements in cameras, software and best practices. Scott is currently heading up ISO standards work to define best practice in spectral imaging. Scott's long-term experience in color management especially within the cultural heritage community has led to innovative patented work in the field of multi-spectral LED lighting technology, enabling precision tunable illumination for viewing and digitizing artworks.

4. Q&A, 15 min — The presentation will be followed with time for questions and answers. Participants can “raise a hand” to ask questions of the presenter using their video and audio or questions can be posted in the chat box.
5. Closing, 5 min — At the very end of the meeting, there will be time for more general IWG questions, announcements and closing remarks.
